JUST AUDIT: BRIEF OVERVIEW

Just Audit has been in operation since 2006. It works alongside 30 accountancy firms carrying out audit work for 67 clients of those firms. The company positions itself to carry out assurance type work only, such as statutory audit and Solicitors Accounts Rules. It does not offer general accountancy services or tax advice and is the perfect complement for firms of accountants who don't carry out audits themselves.

The type of work carried out by Just Audit is principally the statutory audit of Limited Companies.

In addition it also carries out:

- Solicitors' Accounts Rules
- ABTA Accountants Reports
- CASS Audits
- Charity Audits

All of these require registered auditor status.

Just Audit's systems and procedures are set up specifically to provide a pure audit service to support the work of accountants who typically provide a general accountancy and tax service to their clients. We utilise their work as much as possible, therefore minimising disruption to the client. We consider this, along with our independence and experience, to be one of our major strengths.

At Just Audit we invest in our team, all of whom are friendly and approachable with a vast amount of experience to smooth the whole audit process, all professionally qualified or qualified by experience. All the team work remotely from their home offices, in various parts of the country, minimising personal travelling time and cost (environmental and personal expense), and maximising focus on what matters – our clients. We always aim to assign staff on a basis of proximity to our clients, backed where necessary with additional staffing often on a remote basis.

THE TEAM

Just Audit is headed by Rachel Davis. Rachel has been in practice for over 23 years. Her personal experience is with small, medium and large sized accountancy practices; therefore Rachel has had experience of many different sizes and types of clients.

Within Just Audit there is a team comprising of an experienced audit manager and four audit seniors, all with a considerable amount of audit experience, along with a marketing manager, Andrea and the firm's secretary, Tania.

CONSISTENCY

Wherever possible we aim to have continuity of staffing within the audit team; this is beneficial to both the client and for our knowledge and understanding of the client's business.

Just Audit is proud of its team of committed, long-standing employees. For our clients it means that they work with the same Just Audit contact year on year. Taking the figures into account for the last 4 years, the same staff member has been in charge of the same audits 82% of the time.

TESTIMONIALS

Clients

Jason Morrison, Director - Gallo UK Limited

“ We were extremely happy with the service that Rachel at Just Audit provided. We found the whole audit experience much less stressful and time consuming compared to previous audits with other auditors. Just Audit were thorough and explained themselves well when asking for certain information. The follow up until completion of the audit was fantastic and there was always someone available to speak to if we had any queries. Just Audit made some suggestions to our company to make it more efficient and we utilised one of the suggestions which was fantastic. We will look forward to next year's audit. ”

Iain Bullock, Director, Renz (UK) Limited

“ Christine Turner, Director, Turner & Co

We have been working with Just Audit since 2008 and Rachel and her team have completed over 65 audits of our client companies in this time. We do not maintain an audit registration and we continue to take advantage of the excellent audit services provided by Just Audit, freeing up valuable time, leaving us to concentrate on what we do best. We think of Just Audit as our Audit Department, working together to provide a smooth and efficient year end accounting compliance experience to our clients. Working with Just Audit has enabled us to strengthen the relationship we have with our clients. Rachel Davis and her team are highly experienced and approachable, working alongside us as part of our practice team. I have no hesitation in recommending Just Audit to other accountancy practices. ”

“ Max Hathaway, Director, Coates and Partners Limited

We have been using Just Audit for a number of years to undertake all our audit work on behalf of our clients after we moved out of the audit sector. We have found the working partnership to be very beneficial, for both us and our clients, with clients getting an audit from experts while we can still prepare the accounts and give business advice. The relationship works well as they know how we work which minimises the amount of time we have to spend with them on the audit while they advise us of any adjustments required to the accounts. ”
